Unit Duration: Semester 2, 2024

The Australian Curriculum Achievement Standards in English focus on developing students' knowledge, understanding and skills in listening, reading, viewing, speaking, writing and creating. The Achievement Standard describes a broad sequence of expected learning that students will undertake across the whole year.

Australian Curriculum Achievement Standard:

By the end of Year 10, students interact with others, and listen to and create spoken and multimodal texts including literary texts. With a range of purposes and for audiences, they discuss ideas and responses to representations, making connections and providing substantiation. They select and experiment with text structures to organise and develop ideas. They select, vary and experiment with language features including rhetorical and literary devices, and experiment with multimodal features and features of voice.

They read, view and comprehend a range of texts created to inform, influence and engage audiences. They analyse and evaluate representations of people, places, events and concepts, and how interpretations of these may be influenced by readers and viewers. They analyse the effects of text structures, and language features including literary devices, intertextual connections, and multimodal features, and their contribution to the aesthetic qualities of texts.

They create written and multimodal texts, including literary texts, for a range of purposes and audiences, expressing ideas and representations, making connections and providing substantiation. They select and experiment with text structures to organise, develop and link ideas and representations. They select, vary and experiment with language features including literary devices, and experiment with multimodal features.

Unit Description: Term 3: Representations of Schooling

In this unit students will link their real world experience of schooling with the representation of school in the media and within pop culture. They will analyse the similarities and differences, identifying why certain characterisations exist and why certain viewpoints may be portrayed. Students will reflect on these learnings throughout the unit, refining their skills when writing analysis of multimedia texts.

Over the term, classes will watch films, television episodes and excerpts as common texts that we will then analyse. One of the main assessment tasks for the term will be for students to choose their own representation of schooling to further analyse and critique, making a structured presentation to the class.

Term 4: Text Analysis of Contemporary Issues

This is the final term for our Year 10 students. As they enter the world beyond a high school certificate, students need to be able to understand the world around them, the many different viewpoints on each issue, and choose their response in a thoughtful, respectful, and articulate manner. Throughout this unit, students will be presented with a wide variety of materials. We will focus on analysing different text types, developing an opinion based on this analysis and the evidence presented, and justifying to the world around us why our opinion should be heard. A secondary focus within this term will be supporting students to develop stamina when handwriting.

This unit may contain topics which raise concerns with families in our community. Please contact the class teacher if you have any specific concerns.

Materials and Equipment Required: Students are expected to arrive at every class with a class book/folder to write notes for that subject, a writing instrument and a Chromebook or similar, appropriate electronic device. Students are required to provide the following additional materials and equipment: Class text available for borrowing from school library.

Absences from Class: Students who miss classes due to absence or excursions must negotiate with the class teacher to catch up missed work.

Use of IT in Class: A Google Classroom has been set up for this class. Students will be required to log into this Google Classroom regularly to access course material. Students must bring their Chromebook to all lessons, however, the use of these devices in class will be at the discretion of the teacher.

Homework: Any homework will be directly related to instruction and course requirements, will be assessed appropriately and may impact upon student grades. Examples of homework may include; catch up on missed classwork, revision of classwork, study for tests, assignment work, or preparation for a class presentation.

Late Work: Extensions may be negotiated with individual teachers before the due date.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is copying or using another's work and claiming it as your own. This includes copying, cutting and pasting text or using ideas directly from a text, the internet or some other source without appropriate referencing. The use of Generative AI to produce your work, or edit it so that it no longer reflects your work, is a form of plagiarism. If this happens, work may not be graded and students will be asked to discuss the assessment with the classroom teacher and Executive Teacher for that subject. If a teacher suspects a student may have plagiarised their work they may choose to assess the student in an alternative way, such as verbally or under test conditions. Parents may be contacted as part of this process.

Assessment Portfolio: This contains evidence of work from the opportunities the students have been provided to demonstrate elements of the achievement standard.

A student must initiate an appeal for any grade with their subject teacher. If a student is dissatisfied with that initial process, they must pursue further appeal through the Faculty Executive Teacher for that subject.
